

Draw as Built

- When creating anything using the pen tool ask yourself what am I drawing and how is it built?

For example, there is chain on the side of this cannon. A quick Internet search will provide reference photos showing how a chain is constructed. Pay special attention to how the links connect. Do not follow the template perfectly. Consider that you are saying, here is a chain hanging off the side of a cannon and it has a job. Draw that message.

