

Visual Research

Conduct an Internet search for images of a Civil War cannon. Look at how the object is built? What materials are used in the construction? How does it function? Keep in mind that you are communicating the message of a civil war cannon. Not only how it is built, but how it operates, its purpose and character. Compare the image above to the template under the Cannon Practice.